

that something isn't quite right when it comes to forsaking the Sabbath. Some may feel judged at the mere mention of it.

"The Sabbath was for the Jews, not for the gentiles."

The Sabbath was created before there was "Jew" or "Gentile" and it was observed by Jews and Gentiles. Jesus told us it was created for man. The old testament goes so far as to say that it is even for the animals.

Exo 20:10 But the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates:

"We worship the triune God on Sunday because of the empty tomb on that day!"

The world would be a much better place if we all worshiped every day. However, we must not forsake the Sabbath in those efforts. There is not one verse in the Bible that instructs us to replace the Sabbath (seventh day of the week) with Sunday (the first day of the week). People may point to one or two of the nine verses that mention the first day of the week in the Bible. Not one of those verses says anything about remembering the first day to keep it holy. God very plainly and clearly told us that the seventh day is the Sabbath. Would He have been less clear about it, if He had changed it to Sunday?

"That is the way God wants it!"

Man changed the Sabbath, not God. It would appear that God wants the seventh day as the Sabbath, since that is the only day that He ever named as the Sabbath.

"There is no need for a Sabbath any more!"

The Sabbath is the fourth commandment of God. He must think it is needed.

Exo 20:8 Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. Exo 20:9 Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work: Exo 20:10 But the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: Exo 20:11 For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

"Hallelujah, if there was, I would be taking my lamb to church with me every Saturday to sacrifice!"

This comment implies that anyone who keeps the Sabbath is keeping the ceremonial Law. This simply isn't true. The keeping of the Sabbath is one of the 10 commandments. The ten commandments are entirely separate from the ceremonial law having to do with sacrifices. Jesus was our sacrifice and He fulfilled the need for a sacrifice in the ceremonial law. He also repeatedly told us to keep His commandments.

Joh 14:15 If ye love me, keep my commandments.

The bottom line is that there will always be an argument for those who choose to close their eyes and mind. The word of God is very clear about the Sabbath. We are to keep it. We are warned against trading the commandments of God for the traditions of man, which is exactly what has been done in the case of Sunday worship.

Mat 15:3 But he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition?

Some have replaced the fourth commandment to worship on the Sabbath with the tradition of man by worshiping on "resurrection day". Some have replaced the last day of the week with the first day of the week. The complete opposite of God's word. Do they worship in vain?

Mat 15:9 But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

There is much more information about this subject on the website: Please visit:

<http://GodMadUs.com>

Common objections to keeping the Sabbath.

This article will discuss a few common misunderstandings and objections to keeping the Sabbath. Here is a real comment made in response to the sharing of an article which used the Bible to define the Sabbath.

The Sabbath was for the Jews, not for the gentiles. We worship the triune God on Sunday because of the empty tomb on that day! That is the way God wants it! There is no need for a Sabbath any more! Hallelujah, if there was, I would be taking my lamb to church with me every Saturday to sacrifice!

This is pretty typical of the response that can be expected from many Christians, when the subject of the Sabbath is brought up. Many Christians have sat in the pews and listened to this type of thing for years. It isn't until we get out our Bibles and read and study for ourselves, that we learn the truth. We must approach the subject with an open mind, sincerely seeking the truth from the Bible. It is then that we see the error in what is commonly taught. Let's take a look at this comment in detail. First, we notice the exclamation marks. Again this is a typical response to the mere mention of the Sabbath. Remember, the article simply defined the Sabbath. It did not discuss which day we worship on. Many Christians know in their heart

For more information on this topic and many more, please visit the website: Godmadeus.com

This pamphlet is made possible by the Grace of God and is provided by GodMadeUs.com.

© Copyright 2014 by
GodMadeus.com and Robby Lockeby
All Rights Reserved.

All content and graphics may be distributed freely, provided that the content is not altered and this copyright information is included with the content and/or graphics. You may not, in any way, collect money for this content or the graphics.

Sabbath Objections

~~Sabbath~~

This informational pamphlet discusses some of the common objections to keeping the Sabbath.

