

Some Specifics

Let's look at some specifics. You decide whether these changes are important or not.

Is Jesus God?

KJV Joh 1:1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

NWT In [the] beginning the Word was, and the Word was with God, and the Word was a god.

John 1:1 was changed in some Bibles. The New Word Translation says: "and the Word was a god" Instead of Word was God. Notice the little g. In effect calling the Word (Jesus) a pagan deity

Who killed Goliath?

The KJV and the NIV both tell us that David killed Goliath in 1 Samuel 17:50. However, an issue arises in 2 Samuel 21:19 when the NIV contradicts itself by telling us that "Elhanan son of Jaare-Oregim the Bethlehemite killed Goliath".

NIV 2Sa 21:19 In another battle with the Philistines at Gob, Elhanan son of Jaare-Oregim the Bethlehemite killed Goliath the Gittite, who had a spear with a shaft like a weaver's rod.

The same verse in the KJV tells us that it was the brother of Goliath that Elhanan the son of Jaareoregim, a Bethlehemite, slew.

Does Judah rule with God or against God?

KJV Hos 11:12 Ephraim compasseth me about with lies, and the house of Israel with deceit: but Judah yet ruleth with God, and is faithful with the saints.

The KJV says "with God" the NIV says "against God"

NIV Ephraim has surrounded me with lies, the house of Israel with deceit. And Judah is unruly against God, even against the faithful Holy One.

Did Jesus come to save?

KJV Mat 18:11 For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost.

This verse is missing from the NIV, NLT, ESV, GWT, ERV and the WNT. Isn't that an important verse?

Must we repent?

KJV When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

The KJV says we must repent. The NIV, NLT, ESV, NASB, ISV, GWT, ASV, DBT, ERV, WNT and the YLT make no mention of repentance.

NASB And hearing this, Jesus said to them, "It is not those who are healthy who need a physician, but those who are sick; I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners

Does it matter whether it is written as God, god or gods?

KJV Dan 3:15 Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made; well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands?

The New King James changes the word God to god in this verse.

NKJ Now if you are ready at the time you hear the sound of the horn, flute, harp, lyre, and psaltery, in symphony with all kinds of music, and you fall down and worship the image which I have made, good! But if you do not worship, you shall be cast immediately into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. And who is the god who will deliver you from my hands?"

There are several more times where the NKJ has either changed God to god, or changed gods to God in the book of Daniel alone. For example: Daniel 4:8, 4:9, 4:18, 5:11, 5:14, 6:7, 6:12 and 11:38.

Which Bible should we use?

Many people have a hard time reading the King James version and find that many of the newer versions are easier to understand. It is true that many of the newer versions are easier to understand, but is the message contained in them consistent with the Received Text? Let's examine several verses now so we can make an informed decision on this subject. For the sake of space I will abbreviate the Bible versions.

First, pick up your Bible and look for these verses: Mathew 17:21, 18:11, 23:14, Mark 7:16, 9:44, 9:46, 11:26, 15:28, Luke 17:36, 23:17, John 5:4, Acts 8:37, 15:34, 24:7, 28:29, Romans 16:24.

These verses are simply missing from many Bibles. In fact there are many verses removed from most of the newer Bibles. As an example we can open the Bible to the middle of the book of Acts. From that point to the end of the book of Revelation is the equivalent of how many words are missing from the NIV translation.

The NIV is not alone though. All of the modern Bibles including the New King James Version ignore the Received Text hundreds or thousands of times.
